

Web developer with nearly 20 years experience designing, building, testing, and updating websites and applications with a focus on front-end, accessibility and user experience.

Recent Experience

UI Developer, May 2019–December 2025

CollegeNET, Inc., Portland, Oregon

- Built and updated the UI for new features accross several different products. Built the marketing website for standout.com.
- Completed accessibility updates as reported by users and automated testing to ensure compliance with WCAG 2.2 AA guidelines.
- Tested products with manual testing following a checklist and with automated tools such as Axe DevTools to identify potential accessibility issues and, to document conformance to standards, created and maintained a document called a VPAT for each product.

Lead UX Designer, October 2014–May 2019

CollegeNET, Inc., Portland, Oregon

- Lead the design of CollegeNet's products by creating a design system, documented as a "pattern library" of UI components and guidelines, and updated the visual designs of existing products reflect these changes.
- Participated in user testing to test existing designs and identify new design goals.

Web Developer, April 2007–October 2014

CollegeNET, Inc., Portland, Oregon

- Built and updated online college admissions applications for schools such as the University of Washington, UPenn, Stanford, and many more.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Interactive Media Design

Portland Art Institute, 2007